About this Product Disclosure Statement and your policy

This Product Disclosure Statement (or PDS for short) contains important information and some details about the cover for Bingle products to help you decide whether to buy a product from us.

If you purchase a product, your policy is made up of a few things. There's this Part 1 of the PDS, as well as Part 2 of the PDS which is the Insurance Cover document for the specific product, any Supplementary PDS (SPDS) we may give you, and also your most recent insurance schedule which shows the details particular to your policy. You should read all of these documents together as they tell you what your policy covers, what is excluded, how we settle your claim, and more. Also, some words used in this PDS have a special meaning so please read 'Words with special meanings' on page 4 (below) and in Part 2 of the PDS.

Information in the PDS may change from time to time. If the change is to correct a statement or omission that may materially affect you, we'll either send to you a SPDS or a new PDS. For any other minor changes that we don't need to notify you about, the updated information will be available at bingle.com.au or you can ask us for a copy.

Throughout this PDS you'll be referred to a guide with the statement 'Refer to the applicable Premiums, Excesses & Claims Guide for further information'. Each specific product has its own Guide which will provide you with further information and is available at bingle.com.au

How we communicate with you

Here at Bingle, we're big fans of trees. That's why we keep in touch with you electronically. We'll only send your policy documents and policy related communications by email or other types of electronic communication (e.g. SMS). Policy documents and policy communications will be provided to you in this way unless we tell you it is no longer suitable. So to make sure we can always get in touch, you'll need to keep us up to date with your current email address and Australian mobile phone number.

When it comes time for you to make a claim, all of our communications with you will also be electronic. That's unless we allow or tell you otherwise.

And so we're clear, you'll be deemed to have received each electronic communication at the time it leaves our information system. If you think something's gone missing, make sure you login and check your policy at bingle.com.au or contact us to let us know.

Cooling off?

It's more than just a cold shower on a hot day.

It means that if you want to cancel your policy after it begins, or after you renew your policy for another period of cover, you're free to do so within 21 days of when your policy starts. As long as you haven't made a claim, we'll refund in full the money you have paid. But this means you no longer have the cover you otherwise would have had for that period of cover. Take a look at 'How do cancellations work?' on page 2 (below) for details about cancellations after 21 days.

Special conditions

We might impose special conditions on your policy that exclude, restrict or extend cover for certain persons or in certain situations. These will be shown on your insurance schedule, so it's important that you read it carefully.

Let's talk about your premium

Your premium

The amount you pay us for your insurance is your premium. This is the amount we determine that reflects the likelihood of you making a claim, together with other factors related to our cost of doing business. It includes stamp duty, GST and any other government charges that apply. A change to your policy details could mean a change to your premium too.

Each time you renew your policy your premium is likely to change, even if your personal circumstances have not changed. This is because your premium is affected by other things such as our expenses of doing business and changes in our approach to how we determine your premium.

The premium will be shown as the 'total amount payable' on the renewal notice we send you with your insurance schedule or, if you pay by instalments, the instalment premium will be shown as 'instalment amount'.

Refer to the applicable Premiums, Excesses & Claims Guide for further information.

Paying your premium

We'll always let you know when you need to pay us your premium, as well as how much it will be, and how you can pay. If you do not pay the premium due on renewal by the due date, you will have no cover from that due date.

A change to your policy details could mean a change to your premium. Depending on how you pay your premium, if we owe you a refund, you'll either receive it as a one-off payment, or we'll reduce your remaining instalments. If you end up having to pay extra premium, you'll need to do this immediately once you've made the change, unless you pay your premium by instalments in which case we'll add it to the instalments you have left.

It's important to pay the full premium we ask for. Otherwise we could reduce your period of cover so that it's in line with the amount you have already paid, if any.

Paying by instalments

If you're eligible, you may want to pay your premium by instalments. But just so you know, the total premium will be higher than if you pay one lump sum for the whole year.

If you do pay your premium by instalments, you'll be responsible for any fees your financial institution or payment provider might apply (including dishonour fees).

When your policy's set to expire and we offer to renew your policy, we'll send you a renewal notice before your policy expiry date. Unless you cancel your arrangements for paying your premium by instalments, you'll continue to pay by instalments for the new period of cover. The instalment amount will be based on the terms that apply to your policy on renewal.

What happens if your instalment is overdue?

If you're paying your premium by instalments and an instalment's overdue we can do one, or both, of these things:

- refuse to pay a claim if an instalment is 14 days (or more) overdue; and/or
- cancel your policy without notifying you in advance if the instalment is 1 month (or more) overdue.

How do cancellations work?

To cancel your policy, just login to bingle.com.au You'll have no cover under your policy from the date and time of cancellation. Of course, we'll be sorry to see you go.

If you cancel...

You may cancel this policy at any time. If you cancel this policy, you'll be refunded the unexpired portion of the premium, less the cancellation fee and less any non-refundable government charges if the refund is more than $1. See 'Cancellation fee' on this page 2 for details of the fee. If you pay your premium by instalments, on cancellation you agree to pay us any portion of the premium that is owing but not yet paid and that amount is immediately due and payable.

...or if we cancel

We can cancel your policy where the law allows us to do so. If we cancel your policy, you'll be refunded the unexpired portion of the premium, less the cancellation fee and less any non-refundable government charges if the refund is more than $1. If we cancel your policy due to fraud, we won't refund any money to you.

Cancellation fee

It costs us money to set up and look after your policy. If you cancel your policy, in most cases we'll charge you a cancellation fee.

The cancellation fee for each policy is $20 (plus GST and stamp duty and any other government charges that apply).

We'll deduct the fee from any refund we send you. If the refund is less than the fee, we won't send you anything but don't worry, we won't charge you an additional amount to cover the difference.

A cancellation fee won't apply:

- when you're transferring cover to another car policy with us; or
- if you cancel within the cooling off period.

Our right to recover claims we pay from those responsible

If you've suffered loss or damage as a result of an incident covered, or partially covered by this policy, and you make a claim with us for that incident, then we have the right and you permit us to take action or start legal proceedings against any person or entity liable to you for the recovery of your loss. "Your loss" means your insured, underinsured or uninsured losses, payments made and expenses in relation to the incident. Any action or legal proceeding we take will be commenced in your name.

If you make a claim with us for an incident and you've already started action or legal proceedings against any person or entity liable to you for your loss, we have the right and you permit us to take over and continue that action or legal proceeding. Where your loss forms part of any class action which hasn't been started under our instructions, we have the right and you permit us to exclude your loss from that class action for the purpose of us including it in any separate legal proceedings which are or will be started under our instructions.

You must provide us with all information and reasonable help in the recovery of your loss, including providing us with any documents that prove your loss.

You must not enter into any agreement, make any admissions or take any action or step that has the effect of limiting or excluding your rights and our rights to recover your loss, unless we have given you our prior written agreement.

How the Goods and Services Tax (GST) affects this insurance

All cover limits in your policy include GST.

Each time you make a claim, you must tell us about the Input Tax Credit (ITC) for Goods and Services Tax (GST) purposes you're entitled to for your premium and your claim. If you don't give us this information, or if you tell us an incorrect ITC, we will not pay any GST liability you incur. We'll reduce any payments made to you by an amount equal to your Input Tax Credit entitlement, if any.

Other stuff you need to know

General Insurance Code of Practice

We support the General Insurance Code of Practice. You can get a copy of the code from the Insurance Council of Australia website insurancecouncil.com.au or by calling (02) 9253 5100.

Financial Claims Scheme

This policy may be a 'protected policy' under the Federal Government's Financial Claims Scheme (FCS), which is administered by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA).

The FCS only applies in the extremely unlikely event of an insurer becoming insolvent, and the Federal Treasurer making a declaration that the FCS will apply to that insurer.

The FCS entitles people who have valid claims connected with certain protected policies issued by that insurer to be paid certain amounts by APRA.

You can find more information about the FCS from APRA at www.fcs.gov.au

Fighting the good fight against fraud

Fraud affects everyone. From the additional costs honest policyholders are hit with, to the valuable community resources it chews up, we all feel the sting of fraudulent activity. We're committed to fighting fraudulent and inflated claims so we can keep your premium low. These claims will be investigated, and may be reported to the police.

You can help us fight insurance fraud by reporting incidents where you suspect or know that an insurance claim involved fraudulent behaviours like staged incidents, inflated damage claims, intentional behavior by, or allowed by, the policy holder, or anything else that just seems to be outright dodgy or suspicious.

To report suspected insurance fraud, call 1300 881 725.

Words with special meanings

Sometimes even we have to use words with special meanings to properly explain the cover your policy provides. The words with special meanings used in this Part 1 of the PDS are listed here. Make sure you also read the words with special meanings listed in Part 2 of the PDS (Insurance Cover) for the specific product. Otherwise any words we use are consistent with their ordinary meaning.

We'll send you an updated insurance schedule whenever you let us know these details have changed.

Period of cover means the time from when your policy starts to when it ends (as shown on your insurance schedule).
